NEW AMERICANS RESOURCES

Are you new to the United States?
If so, welcome!

THE FREE LIBRARY CAN HELP YOU:

- Improve your English
- Study for the U.S. citizenship test
- Meet other new Americans
- Do well in school

ADULTS:

• English-as-a-Second-Language Classes: Many libraries host English as a Second Language classes. Ask your librarian or call 215-686-5250.

• Let's Speak English: Join other new Americans at the Free Library to practice speaking English in a relaxed and friendly environment.

• U.S. Citizenship Test: Practice for the U.S. citizenship test online at freelibrary.org. Click on Homework Help and then Adult Learners to get started.

• Online language learning center: Mango Languages is an online resource at freelibrary.org that can help you learn a new language, including English. Click on Databases to get started.

• Health Care Information: Learn more about the Affordable Care Act online at freelibrary.org. You can also get help signing up for coverage at some of our local libraries.

• Have a Question? Submit your question to Ask PA online using Google Translate at freelibrary.org. You will get an answer within 48 hours.

CHILDREN:

• Story times: Bring your child to your local library for story time. A librarian will share stories, songs, and more.

• Literacy Enrichment Afterschool Program (LEAP): Your school-age child can visit the library for homework help, literacy activities, and computer access after school. LEAP is offered four days a week during the school year.

• Homework Help Online: Your child can get homework help online at freelibrary.org in English and Spanish. He or she can also practice for tests, build writing skills, and more.

Every Free Library location also has many computers and books—some libraries even have books in other languages, including Spanish, Chinese, Arabic, and more.

Please ask your librarian for more information.

Many of our staff members are also bilingual.

They are here to help you!
